A Really large town House in Absubia, Pego. This truly authentic Town House in Absubia, Pego with its carved double wooden doors open into an enormous traditional property that is as appealing as it is individual. Superbly conserved with all of the original features including hand made tiles on the floors and wonderful wooden doors etc., this is utterly original!! Looking for Absubia, or just the Pego area in general but looking for something lovingly maintained and preserved then look no further!! All of the rooms are large and have fabulous high ceilings which give that authentic feel to this special home just outside Pego. A rare find in a superb location!! Dont just take our word for it come and see for yourself!!
